

Continuous Learning Framework – the journey so far

2nd September 2010 – 9.30am to 4.00pm
Macdonald Holyrood Hotel, Edinburgh

Since the launch of the Continuous Learning Framework (CLF) in December 2008 the SSSC have been working with the Learning Networks and other key partners to raise awareness of the CLF and support individuals and organisations to use it. This conference aims to celebrate what has been achieved and remind us why the key concepts of the CLF are central to good practice in social services.

KEY SPEAKERS: Adam Ingram, Minister for Children and Early Years
Martin Cawley, Chief Executive, Turning Point
Anna Fowlie, Chief Executive, SSSC
Care Commission
Liz Sorensen, Barchester Healthcare

THEMED WORKSHOPS

The conference will provide an opportunity to hear about the flexibility of the CLF through workshops led by individuals and organisations across the social services sector who are using the CLF in a variety of ways to enhance practice.

There will be four workshops themed around Education, Employee Development, Organisational Development and Leadership.

For more information please contact shirley.gibson@sssc.uk.com. To book places at the conference please complete the booking form below.
